Nominations Open for 2023 Beltonian Award

The Board of Directors of the Belton Area Chamber of Commerce is accepting nominations from the community for the 2023 Beltonian Award.

This award is given to individuals who have demonstrated longtime achievement in volunteer service to the Belton community. That service could be for service in education, church, a service organization, youth programs, or any area that improves the quality of life in Belton.

Past recipients of the Beltonian Award include Don Al Ringler in 2022, Dan and Kandy Kirkley in 2021, Marion Grayson in 2020, Roscoe Harrison in 2019, and Andy Davis in 2018.

“This is a great opportunity to honor individuals for their service to our community,” stated Randy Pittenger, President/CEO of the Belton Chamber. “We look forward to seeing the nominations for this year.”

Letters of nomination must include a summary of why the nominee should be selected and recognized. All letters must be received by Tuesday, December 5, 2023. The Board of Directors will select the award winner from the submitted nominations at its December meeting.

Nominations should be sent via email to randy@beltonchamber.com or mailed to:
