

JOIN HANDS WITH THE BELTON YOUTH ADVISORY COMMISSION

APRIL 4, 2020 COMMUNITY SERVICE EVENT

One Community One day is a city-wide service project organized by the Belton Youth Advisory Commission & The City of Belton. The goal is to spend a morning working together to help the community.

Need a hand to complete a project around the house?

Service projects are 3 hours (9 AM-12 PM) and can include window washing, yard work, minor painting, and other minor external home repair. Work inside of a home will not be allowed. To request assistance, please follow the directions on the back of this form. Projects will be reviewed by the Youth Advisory Commission & City of Belton Staff, and will be approved based on need, ability to assist, and application date.

Interested in helping your community?

Volunteers are needed to assist with projects. Volunteers can be individuals, families, businesses, churches, social/civic organizations, school organizations, etc. If you are interested in volunteering, please contact Belton Parks and Recreation department.
